OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 21 May 1976

X1 1. (Internal Use Only - RLB) LIAISON Sat in on a meeting
X1 between Mr. Robin Pirie, Congressional Budget Office, and [redacted] X1 [redacted] Mr. Pirie was interested in discussing a number of points related to the Agency's estimates of Soviet defense spending. The meeting seemed to go very well, with [redacted] covering matters such as "direct costing," the difficulties associated with placing a dollar figure on Soviet R&D, different pricing techniques, "ruble error," and whether or not estimates of Soviet defense spending can be or are reflective of changing in policy goals. [redacted] promised to send to Mr. Pirie within a few days figures on Soviet manpower costs.

2. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION Spoke briefly with Mr. Jon Holstine, on the staff of the Subcommittee on International Operations, House International Relations Committee, regarding the State Department authorization bill, H. R. 13179. Mr. Holstine confirmed that the bill would not go to the floor of the House until after the first of June.

Mr. Holstine also requested copies of the climatological studies, which I arranged to have sent to him.

3. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION Spoke several times with Mr. Doug Barrett, on the Minority staff of the Subcommittee on Intergovernmental Relations, Senate Government Operations Committee, to arrange for a pick up of copies of the latest Committee print of S. 2925, Senator Edmund S.
Muskie's (D., Maine) zero-base review bill. Due to a mix-up between the printer and the Subcommittee, however, it was not possible to obtain copies of the print. Mr. Barrett promised to send them in the mail as soon as he received them.

Later in the afternoon, I called Mr. Ted Fafaglia, Chief Counsel, Minority staff of the Subcommittee, to find out whether he would be interested and available to attend the meeting scheduled for 25 May at the Agency on S. 2925. I informed Mr. Fafaglia we had in mind an informal working-level session and that Messrs. James Davidson and Alvin From, of the Majority staff of the Subcommittee, would be attending. Mr. Fafaglia said he would very much like to come and if possible would like Mr. Barrett to accompany him, since the latter had "done so much work on the bill already." I told Mr. Fafaglia we would prefer to keep the meeting as small as possible but if he felt Mr. Barrett's presence would be useful that he too was welcome.

I told her I would check our supply and mail them to her if we had enough. Since we had a sufficient supply of each, I put the five copies of each in the mail to her today.

9. (Unclassified - NDL) LIAISON Took a call from Tom Smeeton, House International Relations Committee staff, who asked for a copy of the Agency publication entitled "National Basic Intelligence Factbook." I told him I would mail him a copy today, which I did.

10. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Mr. Knoche, [redacted] Acting General Counsel, and I attended an Intelligence Coordinating Group meeting at the White House, chaired by Jack Marsh, Counsellor to the President. Most of the discussion concerned proposals for destruction of intelligence documents and what would be the Agency's course of action after the moratorium on destruction of documents was ended. 13. (Unclassified - WPB) LEGISLATION Bob Carlstrom, OMB, called for information on H.R. 214, a bill on Government access to financial records pending before the House Judiciary Committee. He said that several Executive agencies had suddenly become concerned over this legislation and that he had never heard of it before. I described the genesis of the bill and the efforts that we have been making to date to improve it. I told him that we were planning to continue very low key efforts in opposition to the bill, but that I understood from Jim Wenzel, at the Department of Justice, that Justice was going to take a strong position against it.

14. (Unclassified - NDL) LIAISON Took a call from Pam, on the staff of Senator Jacob K. Javits (R., N.Y.), who said they had received a letter from Mrs. D.
